MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 12, 1864

News of To-Day

Mr. Leach, of North Carolina, on November 25th offered in the rebel Congress resolutions asserting the doctrine of State rights and proposing that when the United States shall recognize and guarantee the rights of property as provided in the Constitution and laws, the South will treat for peace, either by the action of commissioners or by separate State action, which resolutions he supported in a speech of some length, but they were voted down almost unanimously. The defeated attempt of Federal prisoners to escape from Salisbury, North Carolina, is given in full.

We have an account of proceedings of the rebel Gen. Buckner in Arkansas. The rebel Governor of Louisiana has organized ten regiments of negro troops at Shreveport, which are being instructed in military drill.

We give fuller particulars of the success of Gen. A. L. Lee's cavalry raid in Louisiana than heretofore. Also many extracts from rebel papers concerning Sherman's movements and all their prophecies that he will not succeed, though they manifest plenty of alarm at his coming, while they contain few particulars of his advance.

Correspondence of the New York Herald from off Charleston claims that Sherman was then in communication with the fleet and army before Charleston.

The latest word of Sherman shows that he has reached the sea: this is given up by the Richmond Dispatch.

Chase of Ohio, has been appointed and confirmed by the Senate as Chief Justice of the Supreme Bench. James Speed, of Kentucky, is appointed Attorney General.

The rebel papers claim to have driven back a large force landed at Port Royal and sent into the interior to meet and aid Sherman, while we are assured that news received in New York from Southern sources show that Sherman had succeeded in reaching the coast in safety with his whole army.

Hood seems to have lost an opportunity at Franklin he may not soon have again.

Both Houses of Congress had organized and notified the President of their preparation for business.

Governor Vance of North Carolina complains that he cannot enforce the laws in the interior, owing to the many lawless deserters there, and we hear of a Union raid from this same section into East Tennessee. So it appears the rebels have some trouble at home.

Gen. Gregg's raid on the Weldon Railroad eventuated in the capture of many prisoners, guns and stores, and was a brilliant affair.

Foster did the enemy much injury in a raid from Port Royal. Gen. Merritt had done as much in a raid into Loudon County, Virginia, while on the other hand, the rebels claim to have done havoc on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and at Charlestown in Western Virginia.

Hood has orders to go to Nashville or to hell and appears to be digging for the latter place.

England and France are agitating the Florida question in unison.

President's Message

The Message of President Lincoln, which we publish to-day, is a brief and comprehensive statement of the financial affairs of the Nation, and a view of our foreign relations and of the matters pertaining to our interest as a Nation abroad and at home.

The recommendations made for the action of the present Congress are few. The President seems to have confined himself in the main to simple statements, and its length will be no objection to its perusal by all interested. Mr Lincoln seems to doubt whether if the question was now newly raised the great maritime powers would so readily concede to the rebel States the privileges of a naval belligerent.

The imbroglio with Brazil is merely touched upon, and the condition of the Canadian frontier is fairly treated of, while the President manifests and advises a conciliatory spirit as just and necessary on our part under present circumstances.

Our national debt on the 1st of July last, amounted to $1,719,650,485 49, and the actual expenditures for the year then ending were $862,233,092 76, including all the departments of public service and interest on the public debt, and he comments on the fact that our national indebtedness is to our own citizens almost entirely and that the public burthen does not seem to oppress the industry or retard the wealth of the nation. There are 584 National banks now in existence under the general banking law, whose issues are secured by Government bonds and the system is spoken of as a success calculated to sustain the national credit and afford the country a currency superior to the old banking system.

There are now some 23,000 army and naval pensions in all, and besides there are over 26,000 widows, orphans and mothers on the army and navy pension roll. The war is spoken of as a steady advance of Federal power, freeing several States from the claim of the rebellion.

A recommendation is made that Congress shall pass a constitutional amendment abolishing slavery throughout the United States.

Our Navy consists of 671 armed vessels carrying 4,610 guns and manned by a force of over 60,000 men.

The postal service has nearly paid its own way, lacking only a trifle in comparison with former deficits notwithstanding the increased extent of frontier service.

The late election is spoken of as a manifestation of the love of good order of the American people, and as showing that despite the drain on human life caused by the war there is no exhaustion of voters: over four million votes were lately cast, showing an increase of over two hundred and fifty thousand voters since the war began.

The material resources of the nation are "more complete and abundant than ever and therefore inexhaustible," and the President argues that the people are more than ever resolved to maintain the Union, and he asserts that the rebel chief makes no false issue, resorts to no subterfuge, but boldly declares for disunion and against all attempts at reunion. [illegible] Pardons and amnesties of forfeitures are spoken of as an executive clemency that would naturally follow the cessation of war.

The President takes his [illegible] word [illegible] slavery and declares that he will never return to slavery a person freed by his proclamation. With this brief and sole avowal on that subject the Message closes.

ANOTHER BOUNTY.—The Commissioners of Multnomah county have offered a County Bounty of $50 to each man who will enlist in the new regiment to complete the quota.

SALEM CITY OFFICERS.—At the Charter election held at Salem Monday, [illegible] Q. Wilson was elected Mayor, P. [illegible], Recorder, and W. S. Barker Marshal.

NEW YORK, [illegible].—In the rebel house of representatives [illegible] 25th [illegible] of North Carolina offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The interference of citizens of non-slaveholding States with the rights of the slave States was the cause of this cruel [illegible] relentless war; and whereas the citizens of the slave States in an unguarded moment [illegible] the fatal consequences [illegible] the election of Abraham Lincoln the secession [illegible] the Confederate States out of the Union [illegible] a fearful train of consequences [illegible]; whereas, we the representatives of the people desire to place ourselves fearlessly before the civilized world as anxious to secure an honorable and permanent peace: therefore

Resolved, That any attempt to infringe upon the reserved rights of the States should be resisted by all lawful means.

Resolved, That when the United States shall signify its willingness to recognize the rights and guarantee to citizens their rights of property as provided by the constitution and laws of Congress, we will again treat for peace [illegible] as may be agreed upon by commissioners or by the States acting in their sovereign character and verified by a majority of the people, which shall constitute the bond of peace between the North and South.

Leach sustained the resolution in a speech of some length, but they were voted down almost immediately.

NEW YORK, December [illegible].—The Richmond Examiner of November 28th says: Georgia papers say a great deal about Sherman's movements and nearly as much about our own, all of which it would be improper to copy. It is pretty well ascertained that the left wing of Sherman's army when it reached Madison numbered sixteen thousand men. They burned the town when they left.

The Augusta papers show that the excitement in that city a week ago last Monday, November 21st, was very great, and in the urgent need for troops it was proposed to impress the negroes. One paper of that place was very fearful of treachery on the part of the citizens on Sherman's arrival.

The importance to the Confederacy of Macon and Augusta is dwelt on at length by the rebel papers, and their fall would, it is admitted, be a great disaster.

The Richmond Whig derives some comfort from the assertion which it seems to believe that Sherman is only marching at an average of seven miles per day.

The Richmond Enquirer of Nov. 28th says: On Thursday last, 24th, a serious attempt was made by the Federal prisoners confined at Salisbury, N. C., to make their escape, which was rapidly and effectually foiled at the expense of considerable Yankee blood. It appears that a plot had been formed among the prisoners, of whom are at Salisbury some 12,000, to overpower the interior guards of the encampment and then break through the line of parapet guards, and after seizing all the arms they could to march through Western North Carolina into Tennessee and make good their escape. In the first part of the programme they succeeded. The interior guards were overpowered and two of them injured while resisting the outbreak. They then attacked the parapet guard, who fought bravely against terrible odds till the alarm had been fully communicated to the garrison and two pieces of artillery thrown into position behind the Yankees. Two of the parapet guards were killed in the defense. In good time the artillery opened, and after a few raking discharges of grape and cannister the insurgents cried out for mercy and declared they would make no further effort to get away.

By this time they were completely subdued by artillery and infantry. It was well for them that they ceased their demonstrations and sued for mercy. In ten minutes more the whole camp would have been around the prisoners; as it was, about forty were killed and a large number wounded. Thus their very foolish attempt to escape from Confederate durance ended.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The Times' special dispatch says there is high military authority for saying that the situation in Tennessee augurs success. The Herald's Natchez correspondent, under date of Nov. 21, gives an account of the rebel operations along Red river, in Louisiana, and particularly at and around Alexandria. The rebel General Buckner commands in that region. He has his headquarters at Alexandria, where additional and formidable defensive works have been erected for the purpose of rendering it impossible for the Union gunboats again to ascend Red river. The dam which Gen. Bailey constructed to release the fleet accompanying Banks' army have been used to form a part of these fortifications, apparently with very good effect for rebel designs. In all the country as far around Alexandria as Gen. Buckner's authority reaches, an indiscriminate and merciless conscription of all male inhabitants is enforced. Young boys, foreigners and natives, liable and exempts, are all gathered to swell the ranks of the rebel army.

The Herald's New Orleans correspondent furnishes the confirmation of the recent report that Allen, the rebel Governor of Louisiana, had organized ten regiments of negroes at Shreveport. At present they are employed in strengthening the defenses of that place, but they are instructed in regular military drill, and Allen expects soon to receive authority from Richmond for putting them in the rebel army. The Union General A. L. Lee, in his official report of the late successful cavalry expedition into the interior of Louisiana, says that he had a strong fight at Liberty and captured 200 prisoners, including twenty five officers, also three pieces of artillery, between six and eight hundred horses and a number of negroes, and destroyed an immense amount of rebel stores on the railroad.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—By the arrival of the steamer Evening Star we have New Orleans advices to Nov. 26th. The Era contains the details of Gen. Lee's great cavalry raid, fully confirming the previous reports of its success. It says Col. Fonda, of the One Hundred and Eighteenth Illinois, in command of a column, proceeded to Port Hudson and thence to Jackson. Sixteen miles from Jackson he surprised a rebel camp and dispersed it, capturing fifty prisoners, two hundred stand of arms, one hundred horses, twenty five wagons and a large amount of military stores. He then moved forward and joined the main column under Gen. Lee, which thus reinforced, marched to Liberty. Another had been started from Baton Rouge for Liberty, under Col. Marsh, of the Twentieth Illinois Cavalry. This column reached Liberty and surprised the rebel Gen. Hodge in command there. He escaped capture by jumping from a back window. All the members of his staff were taken, including Lieut. Davis, a nephew of Jeff. Davis. Marsh remained here until the arrival of Gen. Lee, when the two expeditions were dispatched still further into the interior of the enemy's line, [illegible] going to Brookhaven, under [illegible], and the other to Summit, under Col. Bradford, of the [illegible] New York Cavalry. At Brookhaven a train of cars loaded with all kinds of military stores was captured and destroyed, as was the building containing Quartermaster's stores. [illegible]

Files of Georgia papers to Nov. [illegible] and Richmond papers to [illegible] have been received.

[illegible]

LATER.

[illegible] movement is without doubt intended as a [illegible] to protect their rear from attack.

The [illegible] Register of Nov. 27th says: The [illegible] was very interesting from the upper [illegible] road. We learn that the enemy's raiding parties approached very near, if not quite to Warrenton. Scouts report them as being very near that place. From all we can learn they were in small parties and are no doubt a outing, or small raiding parties. We regard this appearance of the enemy as no indication of the presence of the main body. Such movements are evidently [illegible] to feel our strength and cover the real [illegible] of their march.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 3d December says: [illegible] yesterday that Gen. Hardee had [illegible] the enemy and had driven them some [illegible] leaving their dead and wounded in our hands.

This very evidently has reference to the already reported fight at Grahamsville. Official and newspaper accounts all bear out the claims made on the Union side of the complete success.

Gregg's raid on the Weldon Railroad, on the 1st of December. Serious damage was effected to the army and it is thought to have even more military importance than the immediate losses sustained by the rebels in the destruction of property and the capture of prisoners.

A Richmond paper says that the firing by the rebel guns at Dutch Gap Canal last week, was merely for experimental practice, to ascertain what damage they can inflict on the monitors, if they attempt to pass through.

It is said that Grant's men, in front of Petersburg, are preparing for winter quarters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Savannah Republican of November 30th says the rebel loss in the fight at Griswoldville was in all 161.

Rebel advices indicate that Sherman had made little progress with his main body for the last day or two. He is still on the railroad, some distance beyond Millen, apparently replenishing his commissariat. His men and animals must be terribly jaded and little prepared to meet the [illegible] to come.

Another fight is reported between Wheeler and Kilpatrick on November 27th, in which the latter was decently thrashed.

The Richmond Examiner of the 3d says: The news from Georgia is encouraging. If Sherman gets through now, which is doubtful, he will lose half of his army.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Tribune's special dispatch from the Shenandoah, December 4th, says an important cavalry expedition under General Merritt, which has been absent a week in Loudon valley, has returned. They brought away about two thousand head of cattle, sheep, and hogs, and have left the whole region through which they passed without hay or forage of any kind. All barns containing hay were burned, and the houses of Mosby and his gang thoroughly cleaned out. A few rebel prisoners were taken. The party were followed and attacked by bushwhackers at various points, but met with no serious opposition. The result, it is said, renovating a valley which has been a lurking place of Mosby's and other guerrillas is most important, and will greatly increase their difficulties in subsisting in that part of the country.

CAIRO, Dec. 6.—The Federal troops have been withdrawn from Johnsonville, on the Tennessee. The Government stores were removed to the transports and gunboats above the town, when it was evacuated. The river is now wholly abandoned.

DETROIT, 7th.—Information of a most positive character, that a raid upon the city has been organized in Canada, has been received by the civil and military authorities here.

Col. Hall in a note to Major Barker, published this morning, recommends that immediate measures be taken to organize the militia for home protection. A large number of special police have been enrolled. Active measures have been taken to protect the city.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—We have to-day additional news from rebel sources, showing how the fright at Sherman's approach to the sea coast is [illegible]ing. In Georgia and South Carolina all the officials, civil and military, have issued fierce proclamations calling on every male, old and young, who are able to shoulder a musket, to immediately report for duty. The Mayors of Savannah and Charleston, as well as the rebel officers commanding those places, have issued to their alarmed [illegible] communities documents of this character, [illegible] probably by this means adding considerably to the panic. Gov. Brown of Georgia has issued three more proclamations on this crisis, all in Savannah, according to the Republican of that city, even these stirring papers don't bring out the citizens, for it appears that the military guard has to go around town and drag them out of their hiding places.

Firemen's Notice.—The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department will meet on Monday evening December 12th, at 7 o'clock at the Co[illegible] Regular Annual Meeting; business of importance [illegible]. The Delegates are requested to be present.

WILCOX & GIBBS SEWING MACHINE.

We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine, which renders it superior to any other in use:

It forms a flat elastic seam which will not rip in wear;

It is entirely noiseless;

A patented device prevents its being turned backward;

The needle cannot be set wrong;

Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;

It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1863. For particulars, enquire of Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S

CURED THOUSANDS!

And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of People in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM!

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S

SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par on the 17th day of December 1862 for the rent of my building, the Brick Store corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with this contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such advantage of the times to cover a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
